

Be Safe at Home and on the Street Game

Use with Chutes and Ladders game board

You helped watch your little brother and kept him safe. Move forward 4	You forgot to put your seatbelt on when you got in the car. Move back 1	You put your tools away after using them. Move Forward 8	You threw stuff in the storage room without putting it away because you were in a hurry. Move back 2
You used a stepladder to reach something up high. Move forward 3	You forgot to put the headache medicine away and your little sister got into it. Move back 3	You stopped to pick up some shoes at the bottom of the stairs so someone wouldn't trip on them. Move forward 5	You forgot to dry your hands after washing them and then touched an electric switch. Move back 1
You organized your closet so that everything fit in nicely and would fall down when the door was opened. Move forward 10	You smelled propane in the house, but decided it was not big deal and ignored it. Move back 3	You discovered a leak in the bathroom and knew where to turn the water off until someone could come and fix it. Move forward 9	You decided to play with the electric fuse box and broke a circuit breaker. Move back 2

You checked the battery in your smoke detector and changed it because it was low. Move forward 6	You brought in a gas can from the garage and left it in the kitchen. Move back 1	You drew and escape plan for your family in case of fire and then shared it with them. Move forward 12	You saw that someone had left a box of matches out, and you put them away. Move forward 1
You and your friend were playing with matches and started some trees on fire accidentally. Move back 2	You checked for Exit signs when you went to a new building so you would know where to go in case of an emergency. Move forward 7	You and your friends played baseball out in the middle of the street where cars were passing by. Move back 2	You had to walk home from the church and remembered to walk on the left side of the street. Move forward 9
You were riding your bike without a helmet Move back 4	You stopped at the stop sign when riding your bike. Move forward 6	You forgot to look both ways before crossing the road. Move back 1	You were showing off while riding your bike and crashed. Move back 2
You were careful to slow down when riding your bike next to others so you wouldn't run into them. Move forward 5	You forgot to watch the road while riding your bike and hit a drain grate – causing you to fall off. Move back 2	You checked your bike carefully before riding it to make sure everything was safe. Move forward 10	You used your left arm to signal when you were going to turn while riding your bike. Move forward 7

You put away your toys even though you were in a hurry. Move forward 5	You put your seatbelt on when you got in the car. Move forward 6	You helped your dad put away the gas can after filling the lawn mower. Move forward 7	You reminded your little brother to wear his bike helmet before riding. Move forward 8
You were careful to dry your hands well before touching an electrical switch Move forward 2	You saw some medicine that had been left out and put it away. Move forward 10	You remembered to put your helmet on before riding your bike. Move forward 8	You kept your eyes on the road while riding your bike and arrived to your destination safely. Move forward 6
You found out where your electric fuse box is in your home and how to turn off the power in an emergency. Move forward 4	You smelled propane in the house and got everyone out and called for help. Move forward 7	You checked the road by looking both ways before crossing it. Move forward 9	You helped your dad clean up after working on a project in the garage. Move forward 11