Carrot Salad

Tanya Anderson

Grate peeled carrots into a bowl. This recipe is so easy, just choose the size bowl you want to end up with and grate the carrots till you have about $\frac{3}{4}$ of the bowl full. Add Miracle Whip to the Carrots and stir. Add enough to just coat all the carrots. 4-6 large carrots usually take about $\frac{1}{4}$ cup. You can add about 1-2 Tbsp milk to thin the dressing if you like.

You can also add about 1 tsp of sugar if you like a sweeter taste. Now is the fun part. Stir in your preference of interesting additions. I always add raisins, $\frac{1}{4}$ to $\frac{1}{2}$ cup. If I have some leftover crushed pineapple or pineapple tidbits, they also go well mixed in – same proportions as the raisins. If I want my kids to be excited about the salad, I will add in a handful or two of mini marshmallows. You could opt for a variety of nuts or seeds if you like, too. Sunflower seeds would be really nice. Now that's a quick easy salad! One bowl and a spoon to wash and no fussing with measuring or washing the measuring cups and spoons! Best of all, the kids will eat their raw carrots and ask for more!

Yogurt Pie

Rebecca Harris

1 Graham Cracker crust
2 small (8oz) containers of fruit yogurt
1 Cool Whip

Mix yogurt and Cool Whip together and pour in graham cracker crust. Chill and serve. It is also good partially frozen.
